The background of the title screen features Geralt of Rivia, a character from the Witcher series, standing in a dark, atmospheric forest. He is wearing his signature silver armor and has his sword, the Silver Sword, drawn and held in his right hand. The forest is dimly lit, with a blue, stormy sky in the background and some warm, orange light sources on the right side, possibly from a fire or a lantern. The overall mood is mysterious and foreboding.
